

LET'S DRAW!

Start the day with art! We'll draw for fun and skill building using a variety of tools and techniques. We'll keep a sketchbook to help us "see" like an artist and experiment with ways to record our feelings and ideas.

Class held Wednesdays, 8:15-9:15am, Grades 2-5
Class size is limited to 18 artists.

The PTSA REQUIRES a parent volunteer attend each class.

I look forward to working with your artists this year!! –Stephanie

About me: I'm Stephanie Allgood. I have a BA in Art and MA in Education. For the past 21 years, I've taught at public and private schools, classes for home schoolers, and adult workshops too. Creating a community art installation for the Bellevue Arts Museum that included Art Club student work was a highlight! Dave and I are the parents of 5 and we have 8 grandkids. You might find me drawing, reading, quilting, hiking, or riding my bike in my free time.
